Sub: Firstobject receives an order to implement its e-education content for Telangana State Board Curriculum in 253 Government Schools in Sanga Reddy District.

Firstobject Technologies Limited received an order to supply its digital smart class solution, 'First eSchool', from the office of the District Collector, Sanga Reddy District, Telangana State. The order includes installation of content in 253 Government schools such as SC corporation schools & hostels, tribal & social welfare schools, minority & BC welfare schools and all government schools under education department of Sanga Reddy district.

Firstobject will have to supply digital content for Primary and Secondary schools in Telugu medium and English medium. Before selecting the Digital Content supplier, the District collector and the members of selection committee have thoroughly evaluated different companies/vendors and finalized Firstobject Technologies Limited as the digital content supplier.

The Deputy Director of SC Corporation, handing over the order to the Managing Director, Chief Operating Officer and e-Education Business Head of Firstobject

After receiving the order on 23/11/2016, the managing director of the company Dr Sriram Kumar has mentioned that the products & services of e-Education of Firstobject have been very well recognized in the private segment and the company has received many awards for its quality education products. Now, through the current opportunity, which is another feather in the crown, we will be serving the government schools. He mentioned that the company is positively looking at this opportunity and is confident that it would expand into other districts.
